

ORIGINAL RESPONSE BY JOHN GUNN (REFERENCED as DEFENDANT)

5. Regarding Defendant's statement "I was told when she [Plaintiff Riselvato] was married to Eric Riselvato, that she [Plaintiff Riselvato] had gotten a diagnosis of something along the lines of multiple personality disorder that she [Plaintiff Riselvato] was not seeking treatment for, or refusing treatment for," identify all facts) and/or statement(s), written, spoken or otherwise, on which you based the above-referenced statement.

RESPONSE:

John: I do not recall the specifics other than that Shelley was refusing treatment for a significant mental health diagnosis that would make it difficult for her to work with children were it known.

6. Identify each individual who made the statements you identified in Interrogatory #5.

RESPONSE:

John: I believe I was told that by Shelley's ex-husband Eric Riselvato and his three children... Roman, Dimi and Ariana (sp?), who lived in the same house with Shelley for several years.
